Expert Testimony in Person Policies

Our fee for Expert Testimony for 2023 is $3,500.00. for the first day and $1,750.00 each consecutive day afterwards (if needed). As a retainer, we require full payment in advance, to guarantee an appearance. This fee includes preparation and travel time and expenses as well as the time at court, both waiting and testifying. Additional charges will apply if the witness is needed for a second day. If the expert appears but is not called to testify, charges will still apply and any re-scheduling would trigger a new appearance retainer and scheduling priorities.

Effective January 1, 2023: If your jurisdiction allows, we will be happy to provide scheduled telephone testimony, video testimony or deposition. The daily or part of day rate for Telephone Testimony begins at $1,750.00 per day. There is no proration for partial days. Additional day(s) are charged upon request and availability. We don't require a court reporter. This fee is absent any court reporter.

Pension Evaluators® at Troyan, Inc.® will provide an expert witness on an unreserved priority scheduling basis upon receipt of the retainer fee. In the event of conflicts, Pension Evaluators® at Troyan, Inc.® will attempt to offer you an alternative time or method of testimony. ### Stand By or On Call

If the appearance of the expert witness is very much in doubt, this may be an alternative to worrying about unnecessary charges for travel and waiting. However, the retainer fee to hold the time and cancellation charges will still apply.

Cancellation and Rescheduling Policy

No refunds shall be granted for any cancellations received 9 days before nor the day of a scheduled appearance. Rescheduling should be done as soon as possible. ### Attorney Responsibilities

It is the attorney's the attorney to cancel or reschedule the witness as soon as the change is known via a written communication in the form of an email or fax along with the mailed original.
